

Training Materials for Voter Registration Solicitors

In Missouri, anyone receiving compensation for collecting ten or more registration cards must be registered as a “voter registration solicitor” with the Secretary of State’s (SOS) Office.

As part of Secretary Carnahan’s awareness and education efforts to enhance and maintain clean and accurate registration lists, the SOS’s Office created training materials in March 2008 to educate voter registration solicitors about election laws pertaining to voter registration. The total running time of the training video is approximately eleven minutes long. It features instructions on how to fill out the voter registration solicitor application as well as the voter registration application. Additionally, it provides information about the statutory obligations for individuals collecting voter registration cards.

SOS’s Election Division staff mailed a video to registered solicitors requesting ten or more voter registration applications.

Carnahan Reminds Missourians to Register to Vote

Voter Registration Deadline is this Wednesday, January 9

JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI – On February 5, 2008, Missourians will join nearly two dozen states, on what is known as “Super Tuesday,” to cast a vote for the presidential candidate they think should be the Republican, Democrat or Libertarian party nominee. In order to participate in the presidential preference primary, voters must be registered by no later than this Wednesday, January 9, 2008.

“In order to vote in the upcoming February 5th Presidential Primary, Missourians need to be registered to vote by Wednesday, January 9th,” said Carnahan. “Voters in Iowa turned out in record numbers last week to start the selection process for our Presidential nominees. I hope Missourians will do the same. Elections are about deciding who will best represent us in government, so it is up to each of us to do our part and get out to vote.”

Citizens who have recently moved to a new address or Missourians who will be 18 years old by February 5th and have not yet registered to vote can request a voter registration card from the Missouri Secretary of State’s office or locally through a county clerk or election board office. To contact your local county clerk or election board offices visit:

www.sos.mo.gov/elections/countyclerks.asp.

A mailed voter registration card must be postmarked by this Wednesday, January 9th for the voter to be registered in time for the February 5th Presidential Preference Primary.

Carnahan Reminds Voters of Approaching Registration Deadline

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI— Missouri Secretary of State Robin Carnahan today released a new video message to remind Missourians of the October 8 voter registration deadline. Since the beginning of the year, over 220,000 voters have registered for the first time, and almost 500,000 voters have updated their name or address to ensure they can participate in the November 4 General Election.

Secretary Carnahan today also introduced a new website, www.govotemissouri.com, which makes it easy for voters to register, find their polling place, and learn what will be on their ballot this November. Voters can also sign up to be a poll worker or view live election night results on the site.

According to U.S. Census figures, more than six million eligible voters said they did not vote in the November 2004 election because they missed their state's voter registration deadline.

Carnahan Reminds Missourians that Voter Registration Deadline is Today

Voter Registration Deadline for Nov. 4th Presidential Election is Today

JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI – Eligible Missourians who are not already registered to vote need to register in person or postmark their registration by today to be eligible for the November 4, 2008, presidential election.

Missourians can log on to www.govotemissouri.com to view different options for registering to vote. It is important to remember that updating voter registration information is required if a currently registered voter has moved or changed their name.

A mailed voter registration application must be postmarked by today, Wednesday, October 8th, for the voter to be registered in time for the November presidential election.
