START HERE

Open the image in Flickr. Scroll below the image. Is there a text box?

NO →

Download the image to your computer, using the downward facing arrow in the bottom right corner of the image.

Open a new browser tab and go to https://images.google.com/. Drag the image you have downloaded into the search bar, or upload the image from your computer using the Google Lens.

Look for the exact image, then click "See Exact Matches" underneath that image.

See exact matches >

SORT OF? IT DOESN'T HAVE EVERYTHING I NEED FOR MY CITATION

Explore! Look for additional information about the image on websites and collection pages. Look for sources with reputable information like museums, journal articles, and newspaper articles.

YES →

Does the text box contain information on the content and context of the image (photographer, description, date, the institution where the image came from)?
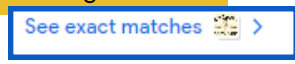

YES

Success! Use this information to build your citation.

YES

DID YOU FIND WHAT YOU NEED FOR YOUR CITATION?

NOT EVERYTHING!

That's ok! If you can't find information for a field after a thorough search, don't include that field.

Missing State Archives + Follow

Historic Trademarks - Ice Cream Sandwich

Collection Name: RG005 Secretary of State Commissions Trademarks

Photographer/Studio: n/a

Description: The 1904 Louisiana Purchase Exposition World's Fair in St. Louis marked the official debut of the ice cream cone. At the time, it was marketed as an ice cream sandwich or an ice cream cornucopia. Cornucopia Waffle Oven Company of St. Louis was the first to submit a trademark application for the ice cream cone. The ice cream cone was made Missouri's official state dessert in 2008.

Coverage: United States – Missouri

Date: 06/17/1905

Rights: This is an expired trademark

Credit: Courtesy of Missouri State Archives

Image Number: RG005_TM_1826.tif

Institution: Missouri State Archives

Ideally the Flickr page should have information in the text box like the information to the left. Underlined is the information you can use to build a citation.

Missouri Secretary of State State Archives