Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended.

This measure amends Article XII of the Constitution by deleting all matters within the enclosed brackets and adding all the underlined matters as required pursuant to section 116.050 RSMO.

XII Section 2(b). All amendments proposed by the general assembly or by the initiative shall be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection by official ballot title as may be provided by law, on a separate ballot without party designation, at the next general election, or at a special election called by the governor prior thereto, at which he may submit any of the amendments. No such proposed amendment shall contain more than one amended and revised article of this constitution, or one new article which shall not contain more than one subject and matters properly connected therewith. If possible, each proposed amendment shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in two newspapers of different political faith in each county, the last publication to be not more than thirty nor less than fifteen days next preceding the election. If there be but one newspaper in any county, publication for four consecutive weeks shall be made. If a majority of the votes cast thereon is in favor of any amendment, the same shall take effect at the end of thirty days after the election. More than one amendment at the same election shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment separately.

(C) No person shall qualify as a candidate for elective public office in the state of Missouri who has been found guilty of or pled guilty to a felony or misdemeanor under the federal laws of the United States of America or to a felony under the laws of this state or an offense committed in another state that would be considered a felony in this state. No persons shall qualify as candidate of elective office in the state of Missouri who has been found guilty of or pled guilty to: harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual abuse, child molestation, violence against spouse or dating partner, and weapons offense. All candidates shall be a citizen of Missouri and United States of America.

(D) Prohibit a sitting legislator from voting on or introduce bills on the following issues while on criminal or civil trail for the following matters: harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual abuse, child molestation, violence against spouse or domestic violence, weapons offense, and discrimination.

(E) Prohibit a sitting legislator from voting on or introduce bills relating to personal criminal or civil matters for which on trial for. All sitting legislator must recuse themselves from voting on personal criminal or civil matters for which on trial for because it's a conflict of interest.

(F) Voter approval is required to make changes to the initiative process, including but not limited to, requirements on petitioners. Any changes relating to the initiative process, including but not limited to requirements on petitioners, made on or after December 2024 without voter approval are void. Any proposed changes put before voters relating to the initiative petition process must originate with a citizens initiative. Any Adult 18 years or older may collect any petition approved for circulation. A petitioner may be volunteer or paid. An employer may pay per signature, by the hour, or anyway agreed to. Require that every ballot summary be clear, unbiased, fair and accurate and, when possible, use only language found in the ballot measure. A 9 person committee shall write the ballot summary shall consist of 3 people from the campaign, 3 people assigned by a Cole county judge, and 3 people assigned from the legislature. After 25 days, a Cole county judge may write the ballot summary if the committee fail to do so. Litigants may appeal to the Missouri Court of Appeals, Western District if there's a disagreement with any rulings from the 19th Judicial Circuit on this matter.

(G) If any portion, clause, or phrase of this Amendment is, for any reason, held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining portions, clauses, and phrases shall not be affected, but shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 3(c). Any proposed constitution or constitutional amendment adopted by the convention shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the state at such time, in such manner and containing such separate and alternative propositions and on such official ballot as may be provided by the convention, at a special election not less than sixty days nor more than six months after the adjournment of the convention. Upon the approval of the constitution or constitutional amendments the same shall take effect at the end of thirty days after the election. The result of the election shall be proclaimed by the governor. Prohibit campaign funds from foreign governments or foreign campaigns.
