11 CSR 45-4.205 Affiliate Supplier's License

PURPOSE: This rule establishes an affiliate supplier's license, which may be issued to affiliates of riverboat licensees.

(1) An affiliate supplier's license is required of any person who is an affiliate of a Class A or Class B licensee or a key person/key person business entity of a Class A licensee and sells or leases gambling equipment, gambling supplies or both to its Class B licensee affiliate. For purposes of 11 CSR 45-4.205, an "affiliate" of, or a person "affiliated" with, a specific person is a person that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified. The term "control" (including the terms "controlling," "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract, or otherwise.

(2) Applications for an affiliate supplier's license shall be made on a form obtained from the commission. Copies of all necessary forms are available for public inspection at the offices of the commission.

(3) Applications shall include the information set forth in 11 CSR 45-4.200(3) and the application shall be subject to 11 CSR 45-4.200(4)(A)7.E.(V) and (5).

RSMo. In making the required determinations, the commission may consider the factors and indices set forth in 11 CSR 45-4.230(2), among others.

(5) The one (1)-time nonrefundable application fee for an affiliate supplier's license shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or a greater amount as determined by the commission. The applicant or licensee shall be assessed fees, if any, to cover the additional costs of the investigation. Additionally, the executive director may waive or modify licensing fees.

(6) The key person/key person business entity employed by affiliate suppliers will be required to be licensed by the Missouri Gaming Commission. The affiliate supplier key person/key person business entity application shall require a one (1)-time nonrefundable fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) plus the annual licensing fee of one hundred dollars ($100). (E) A criminal history check completed by a commission agent does not reveal that the applicant has been convicted of a felony under Missouri law, the laws of any other state, or the laws of the United States; and

(F) The applicant shows good cause for granting the temporary license.

(2) A temporary license holder remains an applicant for a supplier's license and is subject to all limitations and restrictions relating to applicants and licensees under sections 313.800 to 313.850, RSMo, and 11 CSR 45-1 et seq., as amended from time-to-time, except that the applicant is accorded the privileges that are granted to the temporary licensee pursuant to the provisions of this rule.

(3) A temporary license issued under the provisions of this rule shall not be transferred. If an applicant fails to begin providing goods or services to a Class A or Class B licensee within ninety (90) days of issuance of the temporary license, the applicant shall advise the commission immediately and the commission may, in its discretion, revoke the temporary license.

(4) A temporary license is issued in the sole discretion of the commission. The commission may refuse to issue a temporary supplier's license, or revoke a temporary supplier's license for any of the following reasons:

(5) The following procedure may be used to revoke a temporary license issued under the provisions of this rule:

(A) The executive director may, upon written notice to the temporary licensee, revoke a temporary supplier's license if the executive director determines that the background investigation reveals information that would lead the commission staff to recommend that the applicant be found not suitable for licensure. The executive director shall also notify all Class A licensees of the revocation of the applicant's temporary supplier's license;

(B) If an applicant's temporary supplier's license is revoked, the applicant shall not be permitted to provide any riverboat licensee with gaming equipment or supplies; and

(C) If an applicant's temporary supplier's license is revoked by the executive director, the executive director shall immediately forward the application to the commission for action.

(6) The holder of a temporary supplier's license shall file an annual renewal application pursuant to 11 CSR 45-4.250 and the annual fee as provided for in 11 CSR 45-4.240. The applicant shall be responsible for a prorated annual fee as set forth in 11 CSR 45-4.240(2)(B) upon issuance of a supplier's license, notwithstanding the payment of the annual fee at the time the temporary supplier's license is issued.

(7) A temporary supplier's license entitles the holder to sell or lease gambling equipment, gambling supplies, or both, to any Class A licensee, subject to the conditions and restrictions imposed by this rule.

(8) If the holder of a temporary supplier's license is issued a supplier's license under 11 CSR 45-4.230, such supplier's license shall supersede the existing temporary supplier's license, and the temporary supplier's license shall be null and void upon issuance of the supplier's license; provided that the fee due for the temporary supplier's license shall not be refunded in whole or in part and the fee for the supplier's license shall be paid as set forth in 11 CSR 45-4.240(2)(B).

(9) Gaming laboratories that test and certify gaming equipment shall not be issued temporary licenses.
